

Be.

Be a leader. Be a role model. Be appreciated. Be respected. Be involved. Belong.

For over three decades, Opal Services has been working to create positive change within our company, in the community, and, most importantly, in the lives of the individuals we serve.

Our employees are caring and dependable individuals who take initiative. They are focused on evaluating needs, setting customized, individual goals and helping their clients and consumers attain those goals and achieve success.

Be a leader.

When you come to work for Opal Services, you have the rare opportunity to impact an individual's life, in a variety of areas. By demonstrating appropriate, effective behavior and communication, you will demonstrate a healthy lifestyle and the ability to create a positive environment. In addition, you will help our clients and consumers increase their independence and community involvement, by setting achievable goals.

Be a role model.

Our employees are the cornerstone of our success, and we value and appreciate their skills and enthusiasm.

We offer both part-time and full-time opportunities, flexible schedules, and competitive compensation. With over 30 homes, there are plenty of opportunities available to fit just about everyone's unique strengths and interests. More importantly, there are unlimited opportunities to develop new skills, share new ideas, earn important certifications, and gain valuable experiences, all in a warm, fun and encouraging environment. You'll enjoy all the perks of being part of an established, stable growing company; while finding that we still have a small-company feel, one where your dedication is valued.

Be appreciated.

Our staff comes from a variety of backgrounds with many interests, all of which contribute to and enrich the lives of our clients and consumers. Respect for each other, whether co-worker, consumer, or client, is very important to our company culture.

Be respected.

You will find there are many ways to get involved. As an Opal employee, you will get to accompany clients and consumers on fun outings and community activities, and encourage learning and independence with unique and creative ideas.

Be involved.

Being part of a team gives you a unique network of individuals to tap into for their skills, experience and knowledge. All of us working together create an environment that is mutually beneficial to consumers and employees alike.
